99.18.1 The Purpose and Method of the “Canadian Farm Problems” Outlines.

99.18.2 Farm Planning Series
- No. 1: “Why do we have different types of farming?” by J.E. Lattimer
- No. 2: “What is a desirable combination of enterprises on the farm?” by J.E. Lattimer.
- No. 3: “Why do some farmers pay while others do not?” by J.E. Lattimer.
- No. 4: “What is the output per man in farming?”
- No. 5: “Cutting costs.” by J.E. Lattimer
- No. 6: “Increasing Returns.” by J.E. Lattimer
- No. 7: “Record of Prices” by J.E. Lattimer.
- No. 8: “Wages” by J.E. Lattimer.
- No. 9: “Farm Records and Accounts” by J.E. Lattimer
- No. 10: “The Farm Programme - 1941” by J.E. Lattimer

99.18.3 Co-operation Series:
- No. 1: “Why should farmers organize co-operatively?”
- No. 2: “What are the basic principles of co-operation?”
- No. 3: “What are the essentials of success in co-operative enterprises?”
- No. 4: “How does co-operation provide credit?”
- No. 5: “What is meant by consumers co-operation?”
- No. 6: “What is meant by producers co-operation?”

99.18.4 Crop Production Series:
- No. 1: “What determines soil productivity and how can it be maintained and improved?” by R. Summerby
- No. 2: “The Place of Rotation in improving farm crops.” by R. Summerby
- No. 3: “Why till the soil?” by R. Summerby.
- No. 4: “How to restore soil fertility” by R. Summerby
- No. 5: “What can be done about weeds?” by Emile A. Lods. (2 copies)
- No. 6: “What is good seed and why?” by R. Summerby.
- No. 7: “How can the hay crop be improved?” by J.N. Bird.
- No. 8: “How can we improve our pastures?” by L.C. Raymond
- No. 9: “Grain crops in the East” by Emile A. Lods.
- No. 10: “Silage Production” by L.C. Raymond
- No. 11: “Should we grow alfalfa?” by J.N. Bird.
- No. 12: “Corn” by L.C. Raymond.

99.18.5 Animal Production Series:
- No. 1: “What should we do about feeds?” by E.W. Crampton.
- No. 2: “The animal and its needs” by E.W. Crampton
- No. 3: “Feeding the Swine Herd” by L.H. Hamilton
- No. 4: “Feeding the Dairy Herd” by A.R. Ness
- No. 5: “Feeding the Sheep Flock” by L.H. Hamilton